STUDENT DRIVER: All vehicles parked on school property shall be totally under the jurisdiction of the school district administration. This includes the right of school officials to search all vehicles and confiscate illegal or otherwise prohibited materials. Searches by school officials may include "canine" sniff searches and or the use of other detection devices to locate illegal or otherwise prohibited materials. The driver and/or registrant of this vehicle agree to obey the driving laws of Pennsylvania and the rules established by the Methacton School District. Failure to obey these rules may result in loss of driving privileges, fines, booting of and/or towing of the vehicle as well as other disciplinary action. My signature indicates that I have read the district's vehicle search policy.

PARENT/GUARDIAN: We hereby request that our child be permitted to drive to school and park in the school's parking lot in spaces designated for students. We accept all responsibility for our child in this regard, and will see to it that all school regulations are obeyed. We understand that failure to observe school regulations concerning the use of and parking of vehicles may result in the cancellation of the privilege of driving to school.
