

0013 Standard First Aid with CPR and AED

Basic First Aid problems and CPR will be discussed and practical application of skills will be performed. Coping with bleeding, breathing, broken bones and sudden illness are a few of the areas that will be covered. Certification by the American Heart Association is possible but not required. There will be a fee for the certification process.